

Rec Leagues Begin Season Play

Kent WA 24 October, 2009 – FINALLY! With the beginning of NPSHL league play our 2009/2010 season is fully underway. Kent Valley's Mite Tornados are off to another terrific start, as they defeated the Pierce County Minor Hockey Spitfires 14 to 2. Could they possibly have a season better than the last one? Maybe! Danny Smith and Jake Sordahl, both with Hat Tricks, certainly must think they can. We'll see. My, oh my; what a great start for the Mites. Go Tornados!

How about those Kent Valley Squirt Tornados; 3 to 1 over SnoKing Green? Hojae Kwon looks like he's ready for the Squirts, scoring the Tornados' first goal of the season. Hojae is showing everyone the benefit of spending most of his summer on the ice practicing his hockey skills. It pays dividends during games. Way to go Tornados!

The Kent Valley Squirt Tier-II Selects were outmatched Saturday by a Seattle Jr. Squirt Major NW Admiral team. However, nine of the Admiral's goals were scored by just two players, Studioso and Myers. Not much depth there coach. But then, I guess you don't need it if those two players show up for every game. The Selects had a better outing on Sunday as they defeated Everett 12 to 1. Every Select player had either a goal or an assist in that game; everyone was involved, as they should be. Way to go Selects!

Our PeeWees are happy to have the weekend behind them. The Hurricanes dropped their first NPSHL league game to the Kitsap County Outlaw Black team by a score 4 to zip.

The Bantam Tornados fared only a little bit better than the PeeWees, dropping their first of the season to Everett 4 to 2.

Kent Valley goalies Colby Bennett and Jacob Panzer were traded to the Wenatchee Jr. Wild for exhibition games this past weekend at Kent Valley Ice Centre. The Wild were minus a goalie for the weekend and picked up Bennett for Saturday's exhibition game and Panzer for Sunday's game. Both goalies were happy to be traded back to their Selects Sunday evening after facing 42 shots on Saturday and 37 shots on Sunday, all from their teammates on the Selects. What are friends for if not to help you hone your skills? We love our goalies!

Chuck Cadiente's Midget Tornados took on the Everett Grizzlies Saturday beating the bears 15 to 0. Justin Hill-Sellers and Blake Walsh each earned Hat Tricks in that outing. Penalties were held to a minimum giving the team a point in the sportsmanship category. You're off to great start guys. Keep it up!

Mikhail Sentyurin Receives Release from Moscow Dynamo

This is another one of those; FINALLY stories! For weeks I've watched a lone hockey player in a WHL practice jersey skate on ShoWare ice 90 minutes prior to T-Bird games. I watched as the skater lined up 30 pucks on the blue line, 4 rows of 5 pucks each across the ice from one face off dot to the other, and outlined the blue crease in front of the net with the balance of 10 remaining pucks. Then, he took a deep breath and methodically fired one puck after another toward the net until he had fired all 60 pucks without pause. At the end of the puck shooting drill, he skated casually from one side of the rink to the other until he was ready to skate some intricate power skating drills. He was relentless with his solitary training. I admired his determination, persistence and commitment.

I ultimately learned that this solitary player was Mikhail Sentyurin a T-Bird's draft pick from the Moscow Dynamo. Sentyurin was being held hostage to paper work between the Seattle Thunderbirds, the International Ice Hockey Federation and the Moscow Dynamo. Because Sentyurin did not have a release from the Moscow Dynamo he could not participate in T-Bird practices or training activities. He was on his own to practice, stay in shape, and prepare for the day when he would be released to join the Thunderbirds.

Prior to each T-Bird game I'd ask T-Birds management if we had the Russian on the roster yet? One day two weeks ago T-Bird's GM Russ Farwell said; "Every day we tell Mikhail, maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow." Well, tomorrow has finally come! The release has arrived! Mikhail can now join the T-Bird practices and other team activities. I can't wait to see this young man in a T-Birds jersey. I'm confident he has an abundance of skill and talent to offer the Thunderbirds. More than that though, he comes to the team having demonstrated first hand what determination, persistence and commitment are all about, something the Birds need to help them get beyond a strong first period... It is a good day for Mikhail Sentyurin and it is good day for the Seattle Thunderbirds. Now, go buy a ticket. You'll want to see this young Russian hockey player in action.

KVIC Rink Notes:

KVHA Auction Update – Hopefully by now you've heard that Kent Valley Hockey Association's 7th Annual Auction is going to be held on Saturday, January 30th at Emerald Downs in Auburn, WA. Please click here to visit our website for auction information and donation ideas. Contact Tammy Haywood if you have any questions.

Hockey Stick Project Update – We've collected almost 60 hockey sticks for the troops at Kandahar, Afghanistan. USA Hockey called about the project. Les Grauer provided them some details. They will likely do a story about our project. KING TV did a brief news story about the project two weeks ago. The Seattle Thunderbirds posted a photo of Rob Mason, our guy at Kandahar. Click here to read the story. Next up? We need to ship some sticks. Any ideas?

KVIC Needs KVHA Member's Help – Kent Valley Ice Centre is requesting your assistance and participation in helping us control vandalism and theft in the game rooms. One of the more annoying problems is the continuing theft of racquet balls from Spin-to-Win game. Kids are using their hockey sticks to release the balls from the machine. Then, they use the balls in the hallways to play ball hockey. (KVIC's balls are red and green and labeled "KVIC" with permanent black marker.) Now, if the vandals have a hockey stick, they're probably our hockey players or visiting hockey players. So, we'd like KVHA members to help us out by assisting us with patrolling the game area. Players should not be in the room with their hockey sticks. Please keep your eyes open for potential problems. Perhaps, by working together, we can help reduce the growing expense of trying to maintain these games in good operating condition for their intended entertainment purposes. Thanks for your cooperation.

Game Clock Instruction Manual – We recently posted a printable copy of the manufacturer's instructions for operating the Kent Valley Ice Centre Game Clock. You are welcome to print your own personal copy of the manual. You are also encouraged to sit down at the scoring keyboard during your child's hockey practice and practice your scoreboard skills. Click here to print the manual and be the first on your team to master the time clock.

Mite Tornadoes Begin Season with Strong Wind!

Story contributed by JR Jenkins

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 10 October, 2009 – The Tornadoes dominated time of possession and shots. Both Danny Smith and Jake Sordahl scored hat tricks (Danny's being a natural 1-2-3 in a row) and the boys played very solid defense.

Both Brett Jenkins (in Goal) and Noah Koester are graduates from LTP and this was their first Mite game. Brett did a good job, surrendering his goals on uncontested breakaways; but staying focused while not seeing very many shots (always tough for a young goal tender). The players were most impressive with their time of possession and the many wonderful passes they executed.

The goal tally was great, but all the hard work leading up to the goals was equally impressive (and probably more important). The Tornadoes' defense did a great job of pinching the blue line to keep the puck in, and when it was in the Kent Valley zone they used the boards to clear the zone. Our forwards were really firing on all cylinders and moving the puck around selflessly to find the best open shot - and then putting it on the net when they had a chance.

Much of the credit here goes to our coaches for their thoughtful practices and drills that have had the boys experiencing game conditions / scenarios and building confidence and skill in these essentials.

A scoring summary is below:

Squirt Tornadoes (3) vs. SnoKing Green (1)

Story contributed by Bart Lajoie

Castle Ice Arena, Renton, WA 10 October, 2009 – This weekend's game for the Squirt Rec Tornadoes against the Sno-King Green was a great start to the season. The first goal wasn't until the 2nd period with Elliott Bucci passing to Seth Barnett who passed it to Hojae Kwon for the goal.

During the 3rd period two goals were scored with the first one by Qass Huffington assisted by Seth Barnett and the second scored by defenseman Connor Wilson. Connor saw open ice and skated it straight down with a nice corner shot over the goalie. This was Connor's and Hojae's first year as Squirts. It was a great first game for all the kids.

It's worth noting that the Tornadoes outshot SnoKing 36 to 5. Both teams skated penalty free.

Here's the scoring summary:

Team	Period	Time	Scoring
Kent Valley	2	3:00	Hojae Kwon from Seth Barnett & Elliott Bucci
Kent Valley	3	10:14	Qass Huffington from Seth Barnett
Kent Valley	3	4:16	Connor Wilson (Unassisted)

SnoKing 3 1:55 Joel Anderson from Brayden Shaw
 Kent Valley's Alexander Bucci stopped 4 of 5 shots on goal for 80%.
 SnoKing's Nicholas Gill stopped 33 of 36 shots on goal for 92%.

Squirt Selects Lose One and Win One as Hansen Faces 46 Shots on Saturday, 1 on Sunday...

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 11 October, 2009 – The Kent Valley Squirt Tier-II Selects were outmatched Saturday by a Seattle Jr. Squirt Major NW Admiral team 12 to 1. The game was even from a goaltending point of view. Kent Valley's Cam Hansen stopped 34 of 46 shots on goal for a 74% save rate while Seattle Jr's Erik Garber stopped 3 of 4 Kent Valley shots on goal for a 75% save rate, only 1 tick better than Hansen. It was offense that killed the Selects. Seattle Jr. put an amazing 46 shots on the Kent Valley goal. Cam Hansen must have been shell-shocked after that barrage. Way to hang in there Cam!

The Selects did a little better on Sunday as they defeated Everett 12 to 0. Every Kent Valley Select player had either a goal or an assist in that game; everyone was involved, as they should be. Actually, J.J. Blondin was the only Kent Valley Selects that didn't get a point in the game. He was a scratch and was not dressed for the game.

Cam Hansen went from playing in a shooting gallery Saturday, facing 46 shots, to a walk in the park on Sunday, facing just 1 shot. That's okay though, Cam will put another shutout notch on his goalie stick. Some of those notches are tough to earn and some come easy. Nice job Cam.

PeeWee Hurricanes Fall to Kitsap Outlaws

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 10 October, 2009 – Coach Petruzzelli knows what to work on in practice this week. Shooting! Petruzzelli's Hurricanes managed only 1 shot on goal Saturday against the Kitsap County PeeWee Outlaws in their first NPSHL League game of the season. The Outlaws stole the wind out of the Hurricanes game as they peppered Kent Valley's goalie Benjamin Cary with 34 shots. To Cary's credit, he stood up well to the pressure as he stopped 30 of the 34 shots for an 88% save rate. Credit the Outlaws with their first NPSHL League win of the season, 4 to zero.

Bantam Tornadoes (2) Everett Grizzlies (4)

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 10 October, 2009 – Brad Milne's Tornadoes found life in the third period as they cut the Grizzlies lead to 2 goals. However, the hopeful Tornadoes were unable to get past the Grizzlies defense to close the gap. Hyatt Duncan scored the Tornadoes only two goals, both unassisted. Shots on goal, 11 for Kent Valley and 15 for Everett, would seem to indicate that this game was much closer than the final score would lead you to believe it was.

The scoring summary is below:

Everett	1	3:16	Rylan Huot (Unassisted)
Everett	2	1:35	MJ Meyers (Unassisted)

Tornadoes Take a Bite out of Grizzlies in First League Game

Story Contributed by Mary MacDonald

Comcast Center, Everett, WA 10 October, 2009 – The Midget Tornadoes traveled north to Everett on Saturday to face off against the Everett Grizzlies in their first NPSHL league game of the season. The first period would have the Tornados scoring 5 goals in the first 5 minutes, and the second they would score 7 more including 2 power play goals and 1 short-handed goal. In the third they would add 3 more which 2 were short-handed. The Tornados outshot the Grizzlies 52 to 4.

Though the game was lopsided the penalties were kept to a minimum by both teams. The league has a new Sportsmanship Point rule, if your team receives less than 21 minutes in penalties (for midgets), you receive an extra point. Both teams would receive a point due to only getting 5 penalties a piece. The Tornados are wishing Zac Cadiente a speedy recovery and hopes he can get back on the ice soon. We would also like to ask Coach Sellers why he doesn't want the boys/girls to have a water bottle in the penalty box. We get it coach....no water maybe they will stay out of the box....hmmm not so sure it works that way..... ☺

Here's the scoring summary:

Team	Period	Time	Scoring
Kent Valley	1	14:25	Justin Hill-Sellers from Kyle Miller Smith and Taylor Birkeland
Kent Valley	1	13:53	Paul Pinkoske from Brady Anderson

Kent Valley	2	8:57	Tanner Coughlin from Blake Walsh (Power Play)
Kent Valley	2	8:23	Justin Hill-Sellers from Taylor Birkeland

T-Birds Corner

On Saturday night 16 year-old Colin Jacobs scored his 3rd goal of the young season and Jacob DeSerres stopped 28 of 32 shots, but the T-Birds came up short in 4-1 loss to the Spokane Chiefs.

Sunday Night the Tri City American's came back into town after being shutout last weekend by Calvin Pickard... and this game got off to a great start for the Birds. The young guns got on the board again for the T-Birds, as Chance Lund and Tyler Alos each scored their first goals of the year and Jonathan Parker netted two more, building a 4-0 lead over the Americans. Tri Cities scored late in the first period to make it 4-1 going into the locker room. Over the next two periods both teams went to the penalty box a lot, but the Americans were able to capitalize on their opportunities and send it into overtime tied 4-4. It went to the shootout where the Americans were able to pull out the win.

The T-Birds almost came back from a four-goal deficit on Tuesday night against the Prince Albert Raiders. They were trailing 5-1 with just over 10 minutes remaining in the game.

Then Brad Haber, Tyler Alos and Prab Rai scored, that last two coming with goalie Calvin Pickard pulled for an extra attacker, to provide a furious finish to the game. The Raiders were able to stave off the late T-Birds rally by scoring a empty-net goal with 14 seconds left to seal the win. The T-Birds were all over the Raiders at the end of the game and just missed tying the game.

The team continues to show improvement and is really starting to come together. There is a lot to be excited about this for this season!

We have a couple of great games coming up and the perfect time for you and your team to come out...

Saturday, October 17th is "Kid's T-shirt jersey night" – first 1,000 kids in attendance receive a Calvin Pickard jersey T-Shirt.

Friday, October 23rd the Brandon Wheat Kings are in town for their only appearance of the year.

The T-Birds will then go on their annual Eastern Swing and won't be back until Friday, November 6th, so grab your team, family and friends and come on out and cheer on the Birds!

Also, if your team wants to play at ShoWare Center, please let me know soon. We usually need about a month lead time to get everything ready for your game. So if you are looking for something before Thanksgiving, we need to talk in the next week.
