

Tournaments Highlight MLK Holiday Weekend

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA – KVHA News for 21 January, 2011 – It was an exciting 3-day and 4-day weekend for Kent Valley’s hockey players. KVHA teams participated in tournaments in the Tri-Cities, Wenatchee and Kirkland. Many of our teams played against teams they don’t get to see very often. Eighteen games are listed below. Kent Valley won 10, tied 1 and lost 7 and outscored their opponents 61 to 51. In addition to the usual opponents in the Puget Sound area, Kent Valley teams played teams from Langley, B.C., Portland, Oregon, Missoula, Montana, Moscow and Coeur d’Alene, Idaho, and the Penticton/Barley Mills area in B.C. That’s quite a resume for one weekend in January.

Auction Ticket Sales Heating Up

Kent Valley Hockey Association’s 8th Annual Fundraising Auction is shaping up to be quite an exciting event. Auction Chairperson, Stacy Cinderella, reports that over 130 tickets have been sold so far for the February 4th event at ShoWare Center in downtown Kent. I’m thinking we’ll make it to 200! Ya think?

Ticket Deadline - The deadline for purchasing auction tickets is Friday, January 28th. No tickets will be sold at the door, so if you are planning on coming to the auction, get your tickets now! The auction features a fully-catered dinner, so the committee needs to give the caterer a meal count soon.

If you still need to buy tickets, contact Rena Sullivan or email the auction committee at Auction@KentValleyHockey.com.

Hockey Association Group Photo Available for Purchase

It’s a great photo! If I had to come up with one word to describe the photo it would be; symmetric. Everyone is neatly posed an equal distance apart in perfect rows. All the coaches are the same height and we didn’t have to use phone books to achieve the impressive symmetry. Which means for instance; Martin Plourde and Tony Bell look as tall as Adam Speer who in turn looks as tall as Bob Sellers. Hmm! A framed sample of the photo can be viewed in the window of the corporate office, upstairs at Kent Valley Ice Centre (KVIC).

You can purchase a 9½” x 23 ½” color photo for $35.00. We’ll frame it for another $25. Orders are due by February 10, 2011. Checks can be made payable to Sportraits. Rena Sullivan in the main office downstairs at KVIC can take your order.

Private Ice Hockey Skating Instruction Available at KVIC

You asked and we’re delivering. Robyn Lane is available to provide skating instruction and skill development for budding hockey players. You may have seen Robyn recently working with a hockey player or two during figure skating sessions. Robyn is great with new skaters and is very patient and encouraging. Check the Kent Valley Hockey web site for additional information. Just click upon the Individual Instruction tab.

Well done Tornadoes!

Editor's note: Unfortunately, tournament score keepers did such a terrible job with score sheets that it was difficult to determine the identity of goalies or their shots and saves for all of the games. Therefore, for fear of getting it wrong, goalie stats are not reported here. I know, I know, they're volunteers... But, really, c'mon...

SnoKing Squirt All Stars Provide Nice Challenge for Kent Valley Squirt Tornadoes

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 15 January, 2011 – Kent Valley Coach Harry Smith was looking for some tough competition for his team last weekend and he found it in the form of a SnoKing "All Star" team made up of some of the best from SnoKing's Squirt recreation teams. The All Stars and Tornadoes went toe to toe for two periods until SnoKing scored their first goal at 3:03 into the third period. The All Stars added another goal at 11:50 of the third to log a 2 to 0 win. SnoKing's Marah Wagner earned a shutout with an excellent performance in goal stopping all 20 Kent Valley shots. SnoKing managed only 8 shots on the Kent Valley goal. The game was a good outing for the Tornadoes in spite of the loss as they played well against talented skaters.

Kent Valley PeeWee Tier-II Selects Win Two and Lose Two at Tri-Cities Tournament

Toyota Arena, Kennewick, WA 16 January, 2011 – It took the Selects two games to get their momentum rolling last weekend in Tri-Cities, but, once they found their groove, they played well. Game three, the Selects first win of the tournament, was the most gratifying. The win came in game three as they faced the tournament host Tri-Cities Jr. Americans. The Select's offense scored 5 goals in the first two periods, scored their sixth goal at the start of the third period and the Tornadoes' defense held the Jr. Americans scoreless for the balance of the game. The Jr. American's frustration was obvious as they tallied 19 penalties for a total of 78 penalty minutes. Player frustration overflowed from the ice onto the Jr. American's bench as both the coach and assistant coach were ejected from the game. The Selects went on to defeat the local Puget Sound Tomahawks in the final game of the tournament.

The Tornadoes were on a 3-game winning roll as they faced the Tri-Cities Jr. Americans in the tournament final.
