Autographed Ovechkin Jersey Donated Anonymously to KVHA Auction

Kent Valley Hockey Association’s Registrar, Rena Sullivan, was excited last week when a KVHA member brought in the latest donation for the March 20th KVHA Auction. It was a #8 Alex Ovechkin Washington Capitals Jersey signed by the former Russia Dynamo player himself. Sullivan held up the jersey and said; “I know some people that are going to be bidding on this March 20th!”

Quote of the Day!

The True Meaning of Winning the Cup:

"To Have grown up in Montreal and then to play for the Canadiens was a dream come true for me. Winning the Stanley Cup for Montreal was so special because everybody was a part of it; it was such a source of pride for the people there. The expectations in those days were to win, and anything but the Stanley Cup wasn't really acceptable. We lived and played by extremely high standards. We had some great teams in those days too, and I cherish those memories. I was fortunate to have played alongside so many great players, many of them who were heroes of my own when I was a kid growing up. Guys like Henri Richard, Jean Beliveau, Yvan Cournoyer, and Claude Provost showed me the way, and then I did the same for the next guys. That was how it went, and that was why we had so much success."

Jacques Lemaire, Stanley Cup winner with Montreal 1968, 1969, 1971, 1973, 1976, 1977, 1978 and 1979. Lemaire also won two more Stanley Cups as assistant general manager with Montreal in 1986 and 1993.

Quote from Raising Stanley - NHL LEGENDS IN THEIR OWN WORDS by Ross Bernstein

Editor's note:

Lemaire announced his retirement as a head coach in the NHL on April 26, 2010. However, on December 23, 2010, after New Jersey Devils Head Coach John MacLean was fired after 33 games, Lemaire came out of retirement to coach once again for the New Jersey Devils and led a second half of the season charge that fell just short of a playoff spot.

On February 10, 2011, Lemaire achieved his 600th regular season win after Ilya Kovalchuk scored in overtime to win the game for New Jersey against Toronto 2 – 1. Lemaire became only the 8th coach in NHL history to achieve this feat.

On April 10, 2011 Lemaire announced his permanent retirement from the Devils.

Lemaire is the uncle of former Stars, Wild, and Bruins goaltender Manny Fernandez.

There is a hockey arena in LaSalle, Quebec named after Lemaire.
