

KVHA News – Time Out for the Olympics

Kent, WA – KVHA News for 09 February, 2010 – This will likely be the last edition of the KVHA News until the week of March 1st. Your editor and publisher, Lew Sellers, is headed to the 2010 Winter Olympic games in Vancouver early on the morning of February 10th for 18 days and will not return until March 1st. You can follow Lew's Olympic Adventure on the KVHA web site. Click here to find the page and learn more about the details.

There isn't much that can keep Lew away from his many friends at Kent Valley Ice Centre, but this is something that will. We hope you will excuse his absence.

Below are some scores from the weekend of February 6 & 7:

Squirt Selects Swap Wins with SnoKing Minor

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 7 February, 2010 – The Squirt Selects are likely asking themselves how they managed to beat SnoKing on Saturday by a score of 7 to 2 and then lose to them on Sunday by a score of 1 to 3. Perhaps the answer is SnoKing's Dawson Butt. Butt scored one goal in game one and earned a Hat Trick in game two. Or, maybe it was the penalties. SnoKing had 10 penalties on Saturday to Kent Valley's 4 penalties. It was the other way around on Sunday; Kent Valley had 5 minor penalties while SnoKing had 1 minor penalty. Kent Valley outshot SnoKing 24 to 20 on Saturday and 34 to 15 on Sunday. Go figure...

Penalties Mar Midget Tornados 4 to 1 Victory over SnoKing Midgets

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 6 February, 2010 – The Zac is back! Zac Cadiente proved he's back to full strength following recovery from a medical time-off earlier in the season. Cadiente teamed up with Justin Hill-Sellers and Paul Pinkoske for a tying goal in the second period. Cadiente and the Tornados never looked back. Paul Pinkoske got the game winning goal with an assist from Brady Anderson near the end of the second period. Pinkoske returned the favor 12 minutes later as Brady Anderson scored in the closing seconds on a beautiful top shelve goal off a pass from Pinkoske. Anderson was so amazed and pleased with his goal that he scanned the audience looking for a fan with a video camera. Was he thinking Facebook? Brendan Laik scored the final goal of the game. Laik was assisted by Taylor Birkeland.

Kent Valley's Joshua Severeid played another outstanding game in goal for the Tornados. Severeid stopped 22 of 23 shots on goal for 96%.

Kent Valley went 0 for 2 on power plays while SnoKing went 1 for 4. The game was marred by some major penalties. The most serious of the penalties was a Match penalty to SnoKing's goaltender Justin Norgren for use of his blocker to hammer on Kyle Miller-Smith. Norgren will serve a 3-game suspension.

Here's the scoring summary:

Team	Period	Time	Scoring
