Midget Tornadoes Fall to Canadians in Bremerton

Story by Sheri Walsh

Bremerton, WA February 13-15, 2009 -- Kent's Midget Tornadoes faced tough competition at the Battle for the Sound tournament last weekend as they went 0-and-4 against mostly Canadian teams. The Tornadoes began their weekend facing off against the South Delta Warriors. The Warriors dominated the Tornadoes' zone and had scored three goals before Taylor Birkeland put one on the board after being set-up by Kyle Miller Smith. South Delta went on to score three more beating the Tornadoes 6-1.

The Tornadoes faced the Semiahmoo Ravens Saturday morning and continued their clean-play clocking only three penalties as the Ravens shut-out Kent 4-0. Saturday evening, Kent got more aggressive as they took on the Langley Steelers. Unfortunately, the guys ended up with a little more bonding time than they had bargained for as they tallied 69 penalty minutes! Taylor Birkeland scored the lone goal for the Tornadoes off of a great pass by Justin Hill-Sellers from Kyle Miller Smith. The Langley Steelers best the Tornadoes 6-1.

Sunday morning found the Tornadoes playing the Tri Cities Silverbullets for 5th place. It was a great game with play equally in both zones and shots on goal even. By the third period, there was no score. Tri-Cities got a goal early on in the third with a shot from the blue line that was deflected into the net. Unfortunately two minutes before the end of the game, the Silverbullets were allowed an illegal goal with too many men on the ice. Kent tried desperately to make up the difference by pulling their goalie. Tommy Peebles took advantage of the sixth man and scored twenty-eight seconds before the final buzzer with the help of Taylor Birkeland and Kevin Yang. Hoping for the tie, Kent once again pulled the goalie, but the clock ran out and the Tornadoes had to settle for the 2-1 loss.

Congratulations to the following Tornadoes who earned "Player of the Game": Josh Severeid, Kyle Miller Smith, Taylor Birkeland and Tommy Peebles.

Have a great week!
