2014/2015 Coaching Evaluation Forms – We Need Your Feedback...

We did this last year and about 9% of you responded; not exactly the kind of participation we were looking for. However, we're going to give it another shot this season and see if we can get better participation.

The Coaching Evaluation form is read and reviewed by the Hockey Director. The purpose of the form is to help us determine future coaching positions and to use your suggestions to help improve our Kent Valley Hockey Association. Individual coaching evaluations will not be shared with coaches. However, they will be notified of the average rating that they receive and any specific comments that need addressing. Confidentiality will be maintained.

Please Click Here for a printable Coaching Evaluation Form. Please complete and return the completed form at your earliest convenience to the front desk at Kent Valley Ice Centre. Thank you for your participation.

KVHA Weekend Scoreboard:

Kent Valley Bantam Tornados and Hurricanes Battle for North Puget Sound Hockey League 2015 Bantam Title

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA. March 7, 2015 – Kent Valley's two Bantam teams, the Hurricanes and Tornados, met Saturday to determine the 2015 NPSHL Bantam League Championship. It was an exciting and closely contended match with the Hurricanes getting a 2 to 0 win and the NPSHL Bantam Division Title.

The Kent Valley Bantam Tornados finished the regular season with a near-perfect record of 15-0-2 and 43 points. The Tornados' first place finish earned them a bye in the first round of the playoffs. They faced the Seattle Jr. Bantam Badgers and defeated them 4 to 2 in the second round to advance to the championship game.

The Hurricanes ended the season with a record of 14-3-1 and 43 points and shutout the West Sound Bantam Warriors Red 4 to 0 in the first round of the playoffs at Bremerton. They defeated the SnoKing Bantam Grey 3 to 2 in Kirkland in the second round to advance to the championship game with the Tornados.

The bleachers were packed at Kent Valley Ice Centre Saturday as fans eagerly awaited the arrival of the Kent Valley Bantam Hurricanes and Bantam Tornados to begin the "Battle of North Puget Sound." Banners and signs were seen throughout the arena.

It looked like it was anybody's game until Lexi Doner Jr. scored the game winner with 6:43 remaining in the first period. Doner was assisted by Jonah Mulcrone. Lokelani Antonio caught the Tornadoes off guard in the closing seconds of the second period to score a shorthanded goal with just five seconds remaining to play in the period. Antonio was assisted by Caedmon Kim.

The two teams played even through the final period. The Tornadoes applied pressure throughout the period without success as a strong Hurricanes defense stymied any opportunities the Tornadoes could generate. The Hurricanes' two point lead survived to the final buzzer giving the Hurricanes the win and the 2014/2015 NPSHL Bantam Championship.

The Hurricanes outshot the Tornadoes 16 to 13. The Hurricanes' Ben Fredell earned a shutout as he turned away all 13 shots on goal. The Tornadoes' Tyler Roberts and Cole Konowalchuk combined to stop 14 of 16 shots on goal for a save rate of 88%.

Congratulations to Hurricanes for their win and to the Tornadoes for their great season and their second place finish.

Below is the scoring summary for Sunday's game:

KVHA Bantam Hurricanes (2) vs. KVHA Bantam Tornadoes (0)

The Hurricanes' Ben Fredell stopped 13 of 13 shots to earn the shutout.

The Tornadoes' Tyler Roberts & Cole Konowalchuk combined to stop 14 of 16 shots on goal for 88%.

The Hurricanes had 4 minor penalties for 8 minutes.

The Tornadoes had 5 minor penalties for 10 minutes.

Quote of the Day!

The True Meaning of Winning the Cup:

"Growing up in Sweden I didn't dream of winning the Stanley Cup, like so many of the players from Canada and the U.S. do, but as soon as I got here it quickly became my dream."

Peter Forsberg, Stanley Cup winner with Colorado 1996 and 2001.

Quote from Raising Stanley - NHL LEGENDS IN THEIR OWN WORDS by Ross Bernstein

Editor's note: Forsberg and his father own a Swedish development company named Forspro Company. The company co-funded the Modo Hockey team's new Swedbank Arena in Örnsköldsvik. Independently of his father, Forsberg also owned Pforce AB, a company that imported and marketed Crocs shoes in his native Sweden since 2005. On July 14, 2010, he announced he was closing Pforce after taking heavy losses in the previous two years.[68] Forsberg is also interested in harness racing, and owns or has owned a few racing horses during the years, including Tsar d' Inverne and Adrian Chip.[69] He has also invested money in a golf course named Veckefjärdens Golf Club in his native Örnsköldsvik.

Philanthropically, Forsberg and childhood friend Markus Näslund founded Icebreakers, an organization that brings together professional ice hockey players for exhibition games to raise money for charities.

In late-2010, Forsberg became engaged to fellow Swede Nicole Nordin in Paris. In June 2012 the couple welcomed their first child, a son named Lennox.
