

KVHA News – 12U, 14U & 18U Coaches Named and May Rates Extended to Saturday June 3rd

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA., Wednesday, May 31, 2017 - Kent Valley Hockey Association's Les Grauer named coaches for the 12U PeeWee, 14U Bantam and 18U Midget teams for 2017-2018. Veteran coaches Chuck Cadiente and Harry Smith will coach the 18U Midget level. Randy Antonio will coach the 14U Bantam level and Matt Wagner will coach the 12U PeeWee level. As previously announced, Mike Anderson will be coaching Kent Valley's 12U and 15U Select Tournament Teams. Grauer said, "We plan to announce 8U Mite and 10U Squirt coaches as soon as we can complete interviews. Several of our coaching candidates have been out of town on business and not available to meet with us."

Grauer added, "We understand the importance of parents wanting to know who the coaches will be before registering for the new season. That is why we are making this partial coaching announcement now. The balance of coaching assignments will be made over the coming weeks. We appreciate everyone's patience."

The KVHA Board decided to extend the June 1st rate increase deadline to Saturday June 3rd. Anyone registering before 4:30pm Saturday June 3rd will be able to take advantage of the lower May registration rates. KVHA Registrar Rene Sullivan will be on duty at KVIC until 4:30pm Saturday. Registration forms can be dropped off at the front office anytime during business hours.
