

KVHA News – Summer Programs Help Hockey Players Stay in Shape and Prepared for Next Season

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA. Friday, June 10, 2016 – Kent Valley is offering and/or promoting a number of summer programs to help hockey players stay in shape and prepared for next season. Details are outlined below. Register today to reserve your spot.

Accelerated Training Day Camp 2016 – June 20th – August 19th at Kent Valley Ice Center

Great for all ages: Mite to Midget. In 8 short weeks, this program offers as much or more practice time as a normal winter season!! It also provides a variety of activities that make it a summer of fun for all ages from Mite to Midget. The Day Camp runs Monday, Wednesday and Friday from June 20th through August 19th with a few days off here and there for holidays and the like. The program is directed by Danny Lorenz and Les Grauer.

Assistant Coaches: There are several young adult assistant coaches that are currently playing College Hockey, Junior Hockey, or that have just finished their youth hockey. They provide a very low student to instructor ratio and monitor daily activities.
