

KVHA News – Local “Misfits” Spring Team Wins Canadian Ultimate League Cup

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA. June 19, 2014 – A local Canadian Ultimate League Spring Team made up of players from Tacoma, Kent Valley, SnoKing, Seattle Jr. and Everett and coached by Kent Valley’s Harry Smith has won the Ultimate League Cup for 2014. The Ultimate League is a Canadian Spring league that ran from April through June with games played in the lower mainland of British Columbia, Canada. The league is not affiliated with USA Hockey.

Coach Smith said, “The misfits name originated with last year’s team coached by Randy Antonio. He picked that name because the players were from three different local hockey associations. I chose to continue with that name particularly in view that we now represented five local hockey associations.” Smith said the team went 6-1-2 in league play and went 4-0 in the playoffs to win the 2014 Ultimate Cup. The Misfits also played 1 exhibition game against the Abbotsford Heat U14 Girls team and won 4-3.

Smith praised the quality of his team saying, “We had 3 players in the top 10 in scoring and 6 players in the top 20 in scoring in the league. Seven of our players were on last year’s winning team.”

Below is the Misfits’ roster:

Lorenz Names Cadiente to Serve as Head Coach of Midget Rec Tornadoes for 2014-2015

KVHA’s Hockey Director, Danny Lorenz, has named Chuck Cadiente Head Coach of the Midget Rec Tornadoes. Cadiente will be assisted by his son Zachary Cadiente and Tanner Coughlin, both former KVHA players. The father and son team of Chuck Cadiente and Zachary Cadiente coached the Bantam Rec Tornadoes last season. Tanner Coughlin was an assistant coach with the Midget Rec Tornadoes.

Chuck Cadiente has coached eleven seasons for Kent Valley Hockey Association and has coached at every level from Squirts through Midgets. We've lost count of the number of banners hanging around Kent Valley Ice Centre that were put there by Cadiente coached teams, but it has to be the most of any Kent Valley coach. Lorenz said of Cadiente; "Chuck works well with players at the Midget age level and has a long record of winning teams with Kent Valley."

In addition to being an assistant coach with the Bantam Tornados last season Zachary Cadiente holds three scoring records as a player with Kent Valley. He holds the KVHA all-time record for most shorthanded goals scored in a single game, three, and is tied for fastest two goals scored, seven seconds, and fastest three goals scored, one minute and twenty two seconds. Zachary is a student at the University of Washington.

Rink Update – Court Rules in Favor of Kent Valley Ice Centre

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA. June 20, 2014 – The Kent Valley Hockey Association is pleased to report that this morning's court hearing went as expected and the court ruled in favor of the Kent Valley Ice Centre and their right to reorganize. The court refused to grant the Bank's Motion to Dismiss and ruled in favor of all the Ice Centre's proposed orders. The Ice Centre will now move forward and submit its plan and expects to complete the process by this fall.

Lew Sellers, President of Kent Valley Hockey Association, said; "We are extremely pleased with this morning's outcome. We expected it would be favorable, but we still held our breaths until word came that the court had ruled in favor of the Ice Centre. Today's news should reassure our members that Kent Valley Hockey Association is alive and well, and will continue to operate out of the Kent Valley Ice Centre for many years to come. Go Kent Valley!"

Quote of the Day!

Playing Hurt:

"I remember in 1999 with Dallas, of the 20 guys who dressed each night, probably eight of them had to take needles every game. It was nuts. The playoffs are a two-month grind, just a battle. You are always going to have injuries; that is just the nature of the beast. If you are lucky your injuries won't keep you out of any games, but you just never know. Mike Modano had a broken wrist for that entire playoff run, so how he was able to play every night was just amazing. It is pretty remarkable when you think about it, about what guys are willing to put themselves through in order to win the Cup. The sacrifice is just insane, it really is."

Jamie Langenbrunner, Stanley Cup winner with Dallas 1999 and New Jersey 2003.
