Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA., Friday, June 23, 2017 – The first round of tryouts for Kent Valley's 2017-2018 12U and 15U Tournament Teams will be held this weekend at Kent Valley Ice Centre. Kent Valley's 12U and 15U Tournament Teams will represent the continuation of the Rainiers/Selects programs from prior years that have developed and seen many of its alumni go on to play College Hockey (Div. 1 & 3), WHL, USHL, Canadian Tier-2, and in the NAHL.

The 15U Tournament Team program will focus on a "development first" approach, with 3 practices and 2 supervised off-ice workouts weekly. The teams will go to select tournaments and play a combination of tournament and exhibition games. Home weekends will be at the Kent Valley Ice Centre and will feature 2 game slots for each team as well as shared practice ice and other off-ice activities. When scheduling permits, home weekends will kick off with Friday evening practices giving players a 3-day weekend filled with up to 6 practice/game ice slots.

Kent Valley's Accelerated Training Summer Day Camp Underway

Kent Valley's Accelerated Training Summer Day Camp got underway Monday June 19th with little fanfare. Monday's attendance was 2 and Wednesday jumped up to 5. The low attendance was expected since Kent Schools were still in session this past week. With school out for the summer, attendance on Monday should be much higher.

Monday, Wednesday and Friday you can drop your hockey player off at Kent Valley Ice Centre at 8:30am and return between 4:30 and 5:00pm for pickup. Day Camp begins June 19th and runs through August 18th. Click here for full details and registration.
