Quote of the Day!

The True Meaning of Winning the Cup:

"At the end of the day it meant that my childhood dream had come true. It really hit me after the game when I was in the locker room with not only all the guys but all of our families as well. You just look around and see the joy on people's faces, and you start to think about your journey up until that moment in your life. It was sort of a backwards fast-forward, starting when I was a kid playing youth hockey and just every step of the way until I got where I was right then and there holding the Stanley Cup."

Pat Verbeek, Stanley Cup winner with Dallas 1999

Quote from Raising Stanley - NHL LEGENDS IN THEIR OWN WORDS by Ross Bernstein

Editor's note: Verbeek is currently employed as Assistant General Manager with the Tampa Bay Lightning with former Detroit teammate Steve Yzerman, the current General Manager of the Lightning. He previously served as pro scout with the Detroit Red Wings.
