

KVHA News –MHL League Play to Begin Weekend of October 7th & 8th

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA., Friday, September 22, 2017 – The Metropolitan Hockey League (MHL) is planning to get league games underway the weekend of October 7th and 8th. The MHL League Scheduler is working on the 2017/2018 schedule and hopes to have it posted to <http://metrohockey.org> soon. Parents should plan on having games that first weekend, very possibly involving travel to other rinks within the league. KVHA will notify parents via a KVHA Bulletin when the schedule is available.

Access to SafeSport Training Will be Blacked Out September 27th through October 2nd.

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA. September 19, 2017 – We recently received new information from the Center for SafeSport regarding changes to Refresher training and SafeSport training. There will be a blackout period when training will not be available as they implement a new system. NO COURSES will be available from Wednesday, September 27, 2017 at 11:59m Eastern time until Monday, October 2, 2017. This could be an inconvenience for coaches needing to complete their SafeSport certification prior to October games.
