Seattle Ravens Fall Short in Home Opener Series with Eugene Generals

Kent, WA 26 September, 2015 - The Ravens dropped a tough one tonight against the Eugene Generals, losing 2-1 on a goal in the closing minutes. Caleb Fenton dented the net for Seattle, but the big story was in the Ravens own goal. Netminder Justin Nelson was stout in turning aside 39 of 41 Generals shots, erasing several prime scoring threats. A '98 from Genoa City, Wisconsin, just north of Chicago, Nellie is just the kind of player the Ravens look to move on with more development under Coach Lorenz.

Next week the Ravens will host the Bellingham Blazers at the Kent Valley Ice Centre on Friday night at 6:35 pm. Come on down and join our growing fan base for a great evening out with the family and friends and help Root on the Ravens!
