

Gessner, Phelps and Severeid Earn Shutouts For Kent Valley in Weekend Competition

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA. October 13, 2011 – Kent Valley hockey teams outscored their opponents 55 to 19 this past weekend to earn 8 wins with only 3 losses. Teamwork, strong defense and superior goaltending contributed to the wide scoring margins. The Kent Valley Mite Tornadoes won their NPSHL league game 11 to 0 with Quinton Gessner getting the shutout, the Kent Valley Bantam Selects won their PNAHA tiering game 7 to 0 with Austin Phelps earning the shutout and Kent Valley’s Midget Tornadoes won their NPSHL league game 4 to 0 with Josh Severeid getting the shutout.

Ben Jarvis, Kent Valley Bantam Tornadoes, was in goal for half of Sunday’s game with a perfect 9 saves on 9 shots. It was the second game of Jarvis’ career. He was a perfect 3 for 3 in his half of the game last weekend. Could this be a trend for Ben?

Everyone should enjoy the large number of goals scored, games won and shutouts earned. Not all weekends will be as triumphant as this one, but they will all be a ton of fun, win or lose, and that is what counts. Go Kent Valley!

Kitsap Goalkeeping Blanks Kent Valley Bantam Tornadoes

Bremerton Ice Center, Bremerton, WA October 9, 2011 – Kent Valley's Bantam Tornadoes ran into a bulletproof goal tender Sunday in Bremerton. The Tornadoes outshot the Kitsap Bantam Outlaws 21 to 16 but just couldn't get a shot past the Outlaws' Mitchell Christopher who skated away with a shutout. Coach Alonzo said; "Though we had 21 shots on goal their goalie made the save on the initial shot and kept us from second and third chance shots."

The first period was close with shots at 8 for the Tornadoes and 9 for the Outlaws. The Tornadoes spent most of the period in the Outlaws end but just couldn't capitalize on their many opportunities. The Tornadoes ran into penalty trouble in the second period as the team fell victim to undisciplined play and assignment breakdowns which led to a power play and breakaway goals by the Outlaws. The Tornadoes just couldn't find a way to dig themselves out the hole in the third period. Coach Alonzo said: "We did hold them scoreless in the third, something we couldn't do in the first two periods."

The game scoring summary is below:

KVHA Bantam Tornados (0) vs. Kitsap Bantam Outlaws (3)
Team	Period	Time	Scoring
Kitsap	1	2:43	John Thompson from Mikayla Anderson
Kitsap	2	11:34	John Thompson (Unassisted)
Kitsap	2	8:12	Darren Cribbs (Unassisted & Power Play)

Kent Valley's Cam Hansen stopped 13 of 16 shots on goal for 81% and Ben Jarvis stopped 9 of 9 shots on goal for 100%.
 Kitsap's Christopher Mitchell stopped 21 of 21 shots on goal for a shutout.
 Each team had 5 minor penalties for 10 minutes total each.

Bantam Selects Take Advantage of Everett's Short Roster

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA October 8, 2011 – Kent Valley's Bantam Selects couldn't have picked a better time to play the Everett Bantam Jr. Silvertips. The Tips' roster was devastated by a brawl in a prior game resulting in suspensions to six players, including a goaltender, and the Head Coach. The Selects scored 5 goals in the first period, 1 goal in the second and 1 goal in the third. Christian Cinderella and Jeremy Carlson each had two goals, Anton Nikitin, Nick Pizzey and Elliot Plourde each scored a goal. Nikitin earned playmaker honors with three assists. Nick Pizzey, Christian Cinderella, Noah Persson and Nolan Fritts all had assists.

Shots on goal were not recorded. Whatever the Everett shots on goal were, Austin Phelps stopped them all and earned a shutout. Way to go Austin!

The game scoring summary is below:

KVHA Bantam Tier-II Selects (7) vs. Everett Bantam Jr. Silvertips (0)
Team	Period	Time	Scoring

Quote of the Day!

The True Meaning of Winning the Cup:

"Obviously, it was a dream come true. There were so many pickup games and street hockey games as a kid in Quebec where I imagined myself raising the Cup, so to actually do it for real was almost indescribable."
