Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA. October 26, 2013 – Kent Valley’s Squirt Tornados ran into a strong Seattle Jr. Squirt Badgers team this past weekend. The Ravenous Badgers mauled the Tornados on the Tornados’ home ice. None the less, the Tornados continue to improve their skating and puck handling in the face of adversity. Savannah Dunn is getting tons of experience in net for the Tornados. She outperformed her Seattle Jr. opponent by two percentage points Saturday. Way to go Savannah!

Caleb Chaloner scored the Tornados two goals on Saturday. Scott Hanscom assisted Chaloner’s second goal. The Badgers outshot the Tornados 35 to 6.

Seattle Jr’s Rylan Bushore was the most vicious of the Badgers and provided the bulk of their scrappy offense. Bushore scored five goals for the Badgers, two in the first period and 3 in the third period.

Kent Valley PeeWee Tornadoes Sneak Past West Sound PeeWee Red 2 to 1

Bremerton Ice Center, Bremerton, WA. October 26, 2013 – Coach Jeff Ferguson took his KVHA Tornadoes team to Bremerton Ice Center on Saturday for their fourth league game of the season to face-off against the West Sound Red. In another electrifying contest, the Tornadoes dominated the game with their solid performance and impressive teamwork, as the joy continued with a defeat of the Reds team!

Period 1 - The Tornadoes didn't waste any time in trying to gain the upper-hand, as the fight for control of the puck was intense throughout the period. The Tornadoes did an outstanding job on defense as well as offensive maneuvers when with just over 2 minutes left in the period, the Tornadoes' Alex Britten(#3) netted a goal, getting the assist from Drew Sherwood(#11). Way to make a play, Alex!

Period 2 - The turbulent battle for possession continued well into the 2nd period. The relentless offensive attack and outstanding defensive maneuvers by the Tornadoes was impressive to say the least, as the Reds struggled to collect themselves against the dominance of the KVHA team. Unfortunately, the Tornadoes let up a bit as the Reds did manage to net a short-handed goal, despite getting a penalty for tripping. But that wouldn't deter the Tornadoes when moments later, Tyler Sherwood(#2) would net a quick reply, scoring his first goal of the season, with an assist by Maxwell Mudge(#15). Awesome shot, Tyler!

Period 3 - The KVHA Tornadoes followed their 2nd period barrage on the Red's goalie with more of it in the 3rd. Their relentless offensive attack, coupled with their strong defense, simply overpowered the Reds in their attempts to mount an attack and get back in contention on the scoreboard. Even after they pulled their goalie in the waning minutes of the game, the superior play did not equate to any more goals for either team as the final period came to a close. Way to rally and keep the momentum going, boys!

Summary - The KVHA Tornadoes took advantage of the Red's home ice and showed no mercy by out-shooting the Reds with 23-19 shots on goal! In the end, the Tornadoes came out ahead to win a closely played match against the West Sound Red team in league play on Saturday afternoon by a final score of 2-1. Goalie Tyler Roberts(#35) did an amazing job and turned away 18 of 19 shots to help earn the victory with a 95% save rate. Good job, Tyler! Hopefully next week, the Tornadoes can ride the "win" wave once again in a match against the Everett Grizzlies at home. Good luck, Tornadoes!

Starbucks Crisis Threatens Start of PeeWee Tier-II Selects Game Saturday in Spokane

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA. October 12, 2013 – A pre-game crisis threatened to delay the start of game one in Spokane Saturday afternoon as Kent Valley's Coach Harry Smith and Coach Bob Sellers came to the sudden realization that their usual runners for pre-game Starbucks drinks did not make the trip to Spokane. Both coaches were in desperate need of a Starbucks fix. Beth Walden came to the rescue and made an emergency cell-phone call to the Meekhof's who were on their own pre-game Starbucks crusade. Mark Meekhof responded to the phone request with; "Eight pumps of what? What kind of chemistry is that?" Thanks to quick work by team parents the game was able to start on time...

The Selects got off to a slow start in Saturday's game. They were unable to take advantage of an early power play opportunity when Spokane was called for Too Many during a line change at 2:28 of the first period. Nolan Meekhof scored near the end of the first period with assists from Kemper Terry and Danny McCarragher. In spite of their slow start, the first period turned out to be the Selects' strongest period with 9 shots on the Spokane goal, a high for the game.

The power play finally worked for the Selects early in the second period when Danny Smith scored with the man advantage at 1:08. Smith was assisted by Derek Smith and Alex Bolshakov. At 7:39 Bolshakov teamed up with Danny Smith for the Selects' third and final goal of the game. Selects win 3 to 0.

Spokane outshot the Selects 5 to 4 in the third period Saturday. Kent Valley's Blake Walden earned a shutout by stopping all 14 shots that came his way. Walden faced some tough shots during the game and made a number of spectacular saves that drew gasps from the Selects' fans.

The Spokane team as a whole looked larger than the Selects but fell short of the Selects in terms of skating skills, speed and stamina. Spokane's #41 Matthew Etherton looked big enough to have a mortgage. Several other players appeared as tall as most Bantam-aged players.

Spokane's Gavin Tritt scored early at 1:48 of the first period in Sunday's game as the Selects got off to another slow start. Isaiah Barber tied the game a few minutes later with an unassisted goal at 5:40. Spokane outshot the Selects 14 to 5 in the first period.

The two teams played even for most of the second period without either team getting many quality shots on goal. Isaiah Barber scored his second goal of the day, an unassisted goal, near the end of the second period to put the Selects on top of Spokane 2 to 1. The Selects outshot Spokane 6 to 4 in the second period.

Spokane came out for the third period with renewed enthusiasm and out-skated the Selects for the first few minutes of the period. Danny Smith put a damper on Spokane's enthusiasm at 3:19 with his first goal of the game. Smith was assisted by Kemper Terry. Smith scored his second goal of the game, a shorthanded and unassisted goal, at 11:03 of the period to give the Selects a 4 to 1 lead. Spokane's energy faded during the closing minutes of the third period, perhaps due to the Selects' coaches running short shifts. Even Spokane's big guy Matthew Etherton appeared to be out of gas as he failed to get to the puck for a breakaway opportunity. But, Spokane wasn't finished. Spokane's Jacob Measel put a scare into the Selects during the final minute of the game with his unassisted goal at 14:04. Selects win 4 to 2.

Spokane outshot the Selects 29 to 19 over the three periods. Ben Fredell played well stopping 27 of 29 shots on goal for an impressive 93% save rate.

Quote of the Day!

Celebrating with Stanley:

"I grew up four doors down from Kevin and Derian Hatcher in Detroit, and when I had the Stanley Cup at my house for a big party they stayed away from it. They were both playing in the NHL at the time, and they both understood the unwritten rules regarding it; you don't touch it unless you've won it. I really wasn't aware of it because I guess it had never come up, but it was pretty neat to see that firsthand. It made it even more special when Derian and I won it together four years later in Dallas too. We had played many a hockey game in the neighborhood for the Stanley Cup, so to win it now together for real was pretty amazing."

Shawn Chambers, Stanley Cup winner with New Jersey 1995 and Dallas 1999
