

KVHA News – KVHA Implements New Locker Room Hallway & Locker Room Access Policy

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA. Thursday, November 12, 2015 – Kent Valley Hockey Association implemented a new policy this week which limits access to the locker rooms and the locker room hallway. "This policy has been needed for a long time," said Lew Sellers, President of Kent Valley Hockey Association. According to Sellers two recent events, one at Kent Valley Ice Centre and the other following a recent away game, created the urgency for formalizing the new policy. Kent Valley's Les Grauer sent the policy to MHL League members for their awareness as it will impact MHL teams visiting Kent Valley.

The policy is available for review by clicking here. We welcome your comments

Kent Valley Mite Hurricanes Win One and Lose One in Weekend Competition

Story by Chrissy Fralick

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA. November 12, 2015 – The Kent Valley Mite Hurricanes came out on the ice full of energy for the first of back to back games. Excellent passing, communication and hustle led the Hurricanes to an early lead against the Everett Grizzlies. Early goals by Tristen Andersen and George Whitney helped take the pressure off of the defense. Carter Harrison added two more goals to help preserve a 4-1 victory.

The second game against the Tacoma Jr. Hockey Association's Red Select team was a hard fought affair. The house level Hurricanes did all they could against the superior passing and defense of the select team. Will Sumner and Carter Harrison kept the game close with a goal each, and goalie Cameron Fralick stood on his head, facing an onslaught of shots from the Tacoma team. Despite their effort, the Hurricanes lost 4-2.

Kent Valley Midget Tornadoes Maul Everett Midget Grizzlies 4 to 1

Xfinity Main Rink, Everett, WA. November 7, 2015 – I find it hard to believe that the Kent Valley Midget Tornadoes played a 2:35PM game on Saturday at Kent Valley Ice Centre and then hustled up to Everett in time for a 5:07PM match with the Grizzlies. But, that's what the score sheets indicate. Also amazing is that after playing and winning a hard fought battle 3 to 2 at home they had the energy to win 4 to 1 a couple of hours later on the road in Everett. Are you sure the date on the score sheets are correct?

Evan Bodenstab score Everett's only goal of the game midway through the 1st period. Nick Pokrzywinski tied it up at 1-all midway through the second period with his unassisted goal. Dawson Myers got the game winning goal, an unassisted power play goal with 9:40 remaining in the third period. Nick Pokrzywinski took advantage of a power play opportunity in the closing minutes of the third period to score with and assist from Dawson Myers. Ben Lewis took a pass from Max Fredell to score an empty net goal with just 30.5 seconds remaining to play.

Everett outshot Kent Valley 28 to 25. Cam Hansen had another game in ninety plus percentage category as he stopped 27 of 28 shots for 96%. Everett's Jack Tombs had a respectable game in net for the Grizzlies as he turned away 22 of 25 shots on goal for 88%. Kent Valley was 2 for 6 on the power play while Everett went 0 for 5 on power plays. Way to go Tornadoes.
