

Building for the Future; Learn-to-Play Hockey Enrollment Approaches Fifty

Kent, WA – KVHA News for 18 November, 2009 – According to Danny Lorenz, Kent Valley’s Hockey Director, enrollment in Kent Valley’s Learn-to-Play hockey program is quickly approaching 50 players. The increasing enrollment is providing KVHA Management with a positive outlook for future growth of the association during tough economic times. The measure of success with the LTP program will be largely determined by the percentage of LTP players that migrate to the Mite, Squirt and PeeWee programs next season. By all accounts, that number wasn’t very large with the previous crop of LTP players.

Several factors are having a positive impact on this season’s LTP program. First, KVHA utilized $2,500 in grant funds from the Seattle Thunderbirds Community Sports Foundation to purchase starter sets of hockey gear from USA Hockey’s “One Goal” program. New enrollees in the LTP program are being fitted with the new gear. Second, Seattle Thunderbird players have been supporting the LTP program by turning out, when possible, to assist the instructors with the program. Third, as in years past, KVHA coaches are volunteering their time to support the program by assisting with instruction. Finally, with assistance from the Kent Valley Figure Skating Club we have been able to promote our Learn to Skate (KVFSC) and Learn to Play Hockey (KVHA) programs in the local schools.

Thanks to the Seattle Thunderbirds Community Sports Foundation, the Seattle Thunderbird players, Kent Valley coaches and the Kent Valley Figure Skating Club for helping to build the Kent Valley Hockey Association through a strong Learn-to-Play hockey program.

KVIC & KVHA Rink Notes:

Rena Sullivan Needs Bail – KVHA’s Rena Sullivan has been tagged for arrest by the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA) this Thursday. MDA considers Sullivan one of the area’s “Most Wanted.” MDA cautions that she is “heavily armed with kindness and is highly contagious.” She will be “Locked Up” November 19th to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Sullivan’s bail is set at $2,000. She could use your help in the form of donations in her name to MDA. Contributions can be made by check, credit card or on-line at <https://www.joinmda.org/seattle2009kent/rena>. Or, you can drop by Kent Valley Ice Centre and donate directly to fugitive Sullivan. ## Mite Tornadoes Defeat the KCHA Outlaws on Hockey Night in Bremerton

Story contributed by JR Jenkins

Bremerton Ice Arena, Bremerton, WA 14 November, 2009 – The KVHA Mite Tornadoes traveled to the Bremerton Ice Arena and defeated the KCHA Outlaws on Saturday night, 14-0. Playing their lone evening game on the schedule the Tornadoes were on the attack from the instant the puck dropped in the first period and were up 6-0 at the first intermission. 9 different Tornadoes contributed to the scoring, with 7 earning a multi-point game.

Andrew Alonzo led the Tornadoes with his first career hat-trick. Two of Alonzo's goals were beautiful one timers and were set-up by some creative passes from Lexi Doner Jr. and Jake Sordahl. Andrew's second goal, from Sordahl was scored while he was falling to the ice. Despite falling backwards Andrew kept his stick on the ice as long as possible and was able to flick the puck past the Outlaw goaltender as he went down.

Danny Smith played a strong game, scoring two goals – one a beautiful breakaway that Danny buried high and inside the post – and delivering the assist of the game. Coming into the zone Danny stopped just short of the slot, taking Outlaw defenders with, and found a hard charging Trevor Mertel filling the left side lane. Danny floated the pass over the sticks of two defenders and Trevor let rip with a hard one-timer burying the puck in the Outlaw goal.

Zach Johnston scored 2 goals – for the third time this year – and was thwarted twice by the Outlaw goaltender in his attempts to secure his first hat trick of the year. With the energy that Zach brings to the rush, it is only a matter of time! Lexi Doner Jr. also netted two to go along with his assist.

It was a game of firsts for Gage Gessner, Davis Fjeld and Brett Jenkins. Gage scored his first and second goals of the year in hard won scrums around the net and Davis scored his first goal of the year on a beautiful flyer down the right side. Davis carried the puck into the zone, made a nifty deke to eliminate the lone Outlaw defender in his path and let a low hard shot go, beating the goaltender low to the stick side.

Brett Jenkins earned his 1st career shutout stopping all 8 of the Outlaw shots. Brett also dropped his goals against to 2 goals a game. While the Tornado offense was indeed overwhelming the defense was smothering. The Outlaws found no peace when they did gain the Tornado zone, and were forced by a relentless Tornado defense corps to either abandon their rush or take weak shots that were easily handled by Jenkins. Chase Pagan had the back check of the game in the third period when he chased down an attacking Outlaw using great speed, strong body and stick positioning and slapped the puck harmlessly into the corner where a quickly supporting case of Tornado defense came to the regain possession.

Logan Edmunds deserves mention for his grit and toughness for having been on the receiving end of a very rough check from behind – which was penalized – but getting up from the boards and skating back to the bench showing no ill effects from the hit.

The Tornadoes play the Seattle Junior Hockey Association Admirals Red this Saturday at Kent Valley Ice Centre.

Box Score for this game is unavailable, but here are the scoring / save stats from the game:

- Andrew Alonzo 3 goals
- Gage Gessner 2 goals
- Lexi Doner Jr. 2 goals, 1 assist
- Danny Smith 2 goals, 1 assist
- Zach Johnston 2 goals, 1 assist
- Jake Sordahl 1 goal, 2 assists
- Trevor Mertel 1 goal
- Davis Fjeld 1 goal
- Oliver Carlson, 2 assists
- Brett Jenkins stopped 8 of 8 shots for 100%

Squirt Tornadoes Top Seattle Jr. Blades 2-1

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 17 October, 2009 – A Seattle Jr. goal at the buzzer was too little and too late for the Blades as the Tornadoes held on to win by one goal. First period was a defensive battle with each team getting just one shot on goal. The Kent Valley Tornados found their shooting sticks during the second period firing 11 shots on the Seattle Jr. goal with one of those shots, a Justin Pitzer shot, making it into the Seattle Jr. net. The Tornados ended the second period up one goal.

Third period was more even in terms of shots on goal. The Blades fired 3 shots on the Tornados' goal while the Tornados got 4 shots on the Blades' goal. Sean Blair scored the winning goal for the Tornados with 5:21 left to play. The Seattle Jr. Blades cut the Tornados 2-goal lead to one at the buzzer with a goal by Alex Kane, assisted by Jordan Jackson-Brewer. Final score, Tornados 2, Blades 1.

Here's the scoring summary:

Team	Period	Time	Scoring
Kent Valley	2	2:04	Justin Pitzer (Unassisted)
Kent Valley	3	5:21	Sean Blair (Unassisted)
Seattle Jr.	3	0:01	Alex Kane from Jordan Jackson-Brewer

Kent Valley's Alexander Bucci stopped 3 of 4 shots on goal for 75%.

Seattle Jr's Alex Garrett stopped 14 of 16 shots on goal for 88%.

Kent Valley had 2 penalties for 4 minutes while Seattle Jr. had 1 penalty for 2 minutes.

PeeWee Hurricanes (7) WWFHA Phoenix (4)

Kingsgate Ice Arena, Kirkland, WA 15 November, 2009 – Just 15 seconds. That was all the time needed for the PeeWee Hurricanes to flex their muscle and decisively lay down the law to the WWFHA Phoenix at Kingsgate on Saturday. Not that the WWFHA Phoenix ever backed down from the challenge, always nipping at the Hurricane heels to keep them alert and focused, but the Hurricanes proved they don't always have to "carry a big stick" to win games as they played a solid passing game with absolutely no checking (by USA Hockey regulation the Phoenix team plays a no-check game.)

Dennis Zaks set the Hurricane wheels in to motion when he took the opening faceoff straight down ice to catch an unexpected WWFHA Phoenix goalie completely unaware by pushing the puck in on the near post with Hurricanes crowding the crease.

After that, first period was all Hurricanes! The WWFHA Phoenix seemed a bit frazzled by the quick strike the Hurricanes provided, showing a few glimpses of offense that were quickly shut down with authority by the Hurricane D of Emily Atkins, Kyle Pirttila, Brianna Baker and Jacob Ray, then a complete disjointedness back in their defensive zone allowing the Hurricane forwards to have their way with them.

On the power play after Phoenix was called for tripping Zaks, the intensity-fueled one man show of Blaine Reich took a pass to the slot and slapped home a beauty cheddar, ala Sena Acolatse, as the period seconds counted down. But the ringing cowbells and joyous cheers quickly fell silent. In what could have been a decisive, momentum changing moment, the Ref waved the goal off as having crossed the goal line after the period ending horn sounded. Thankfully the Hurricanes took it in stride.

Great teamwork between Reich and Camden Mallery, beginning in the defensive zone, set up the second Hurricane goal as, still shorthanded, Reich and Mallery worked the puck in to the Phoenix corner where twice Mallery fed crease-front passes for a Hurricane offense that couldn't quite connect. Recovering the second failed feed, Mallery, after fending off a harassing defender, skated around the net to sneak the puck past the Phoenix goalie on the corner by stubbornly planting his stick so she couldn't push it out of the net. It managed to trickle in with an alert, thankfully well-placed line to make the call. Hurricanes up 2-0!

Dennis Zaks lit the lamp again unassisted when he hustled the puck up ice from the d-zone to rocket it past the goalie again, this time over her shoulder. But the 3-0 Hurricane lead quickly evaporated like oasis water in the Sahara desert as suddenly the WWFHA Phoenix offense sparked and the Hurricane D got split for a breakaway throw down goal from the slot that beat goalie Ben Cary over the shoulder. "Whatchaya gonna do now?" a WWFHA Phoenix player boldly hissed to a Hurricane player at the ensuing puck drop.

Minutes later Blaine Reich provided the ESPN highlight answer with gritty determination reminiscent Chris Cloud. Gaining the puck in the Hurricane defensive zone, Reich skated up ice on the far boards. As he entered the neutral zone the defender came to challenge but Reich easily moved on by. The defender's stick suddenly lodged fully extended around Reich's waist as he pulled her down ice to the red line like a reindeer to Santa's sleigh, then purposefully grabbed the twig and THREW it off to continue his charge and light the lamp for his first tally of the season!

The 4-1 Hurricane lead was short-lived as the WWFHA Phoenix fired back again, gaining the advantage on a push when defender Jacob Ray fell off his skates to allow a breakaway. The shot went same as the first to beat goalie Cary and cut the Hurricane lead in half. The Phoenix weren't done there. A buzzer-beater at the horn cut the Hurricane lead to one. It was almost possible to hear the Hurricane fans chewing their nails with worry that the game had suddenly taken an ominous turn! Cool as cucumbers were the Hurricanes though with third period beginning. They were not close to done with their offensive muscle flex.

Dennis Zaks got the first hat trick of his season when he pushed a puck in on the near post. 5-3 Hurricanes! Jacob Ray then drew a slash penalty to allow Camden Mallery his third tally of the season (and his second short-handed of the game) when he stole the puck in the neutral zone to take head up the boards and beat the goalie with a slap shot. 6-3 Hurricanes!

Down three, the WWFHA Phoenix refused to back down and notched a 5-hole marker on goalie Cary to come back within two. Not to be outdone, Dennis Zaks again lit the lamp for his fourth of the game. But, the Phoenix had the last word with a defiant roar as they notched their fourth of the game soon thereafter. They were not going to be bested without a fight! The game's 7-4 final score was the second win in a row for the Hurricanes and really proved the well-roundedness of the squad as not just a hard-hitting, hard-nosed gritty playing team, but also a team that can play an outstanding passing game.

Quick shout outs to Riley Agnew for his continued individual effort both offensively and defensively (he had a shot on goal), Ryan Atkins for his excellent offensive hustle and wherewithal (he too had a shot on goal and centered a line), and Kean Zurn for his alert, energetic, strong play all game that even came with a smile...only wish I'd had a camera to capture the moment as TWICE he came to challenge for a puck on the boards with the BIGGEST GRIN ON HIS FACE that would've eclipsed the noonday sun! Completely made my day and will be something I won't forget for a long time! :)

A scoring summary is below:

Team	Period	Time	Scoring
Kent Valley	1	14:40	Dennis Zaks from Camden Mallery & Blaine Reich
Kent Valley	2	13:50	Camden Mallery (Unassisted)
Kent Valley	2	8:30	Dennis Zaks (Unassisted)
Phoenix	2	6:42	Julia Takatsuka (Unassisted)
Kent Valley	2	2:50	Blaine Reich (Unassisted)
Phoenix	2	6:42	Julia Takatsuka from Allison Kline
Phoenix	2	1:50	Allison Kline (Unassisted)
Kent Valley	3	11:25	Dennis Zaks from Jordan Wachter & Kyle Pirtila
Kent Valley	3	9:45	Camden Mallery (Unassisted)
Kent Valley	3	6:37	Dennis Zaks (Unassisted, Hat Trick)
Phoenix	3	2:19	Jasmine Schubert (Unassisted)

Kent Valley's Ben Cary stopped 6 of 10 shots on goal for 60%.

WWFHA's Katie Wellender stopped 11 of 18 shots on goal for 61%.

Kent Valley had 2 minor penalties for 6 minutes while WWFHA had 2 minor penalties for 6 minutes.

PeeWee Tornadoes Challenge Seattle Jr. Spartans

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 14 November, 2009 – The Kent Valley Tornadoes played a great game against the Seattle Jr. Spartans, the first place team in the NPSHL. The game could have gone either way through the first two periods as the Tornadoes had numerous scoring chances but just couldn't finish. Landon Bevier had several nice chances as did Mason Conner, Elliot Plourde, and Dylan Moriarty, all of whom played very well. The Tornadoes just couldn't put the biscuit in the old basket. The Spartans scored the clinching goal late in the third period as the Tornadoes activated the defense to put on an offensive push. They pressed the play, and it just didn't work out. Give the Spartans credit for shutting down the Tornadoes offense in the third period.

Colin Bartlett was the Tornadoes Home Depot "It's Better To Be A Hammer Than A Nail" Hard Hat award winner this week. A note from the Tornadoes Coaching Staff read; "Colin played authoritatively on defense in our end and was a major reason the game was so closely fought. In addition, he made physical plays all over the ice and jumped into the offensive flow at all the right times." Great game Colin!

The scoring summary is below:

Team	Period	Time	Scoring
Seattle Jr.	2	12:22	Nikolas Stritmatter from Jackson Finnerty
Seattle Jr.	3	0:42	Zachary Bielaczyc from Nikolas Stritmatter & Dylan Feldhaus

Kent Valley's Aaron Mathews stopped 13 of 15 shots on goal for 87%.

Seattle Jr's Calvin Walker stopped 9 of 9 shots on goal to earn the shutout.

Kent valley had 1 minor penalty for 3 minutes while Seattle Jr. had 4 minor penalties and 1 major misconduct penalty for 21 minutes.

Bantam Tornadoes Mauled by Grizzlies 6 to 2

Community Ice Arena, Everett, WA 14 November, 2009 – The Everett Grizzlies weren't kind to the visiting Kent Valley Bantam Tornadoes Saturday as they mauled the Tornadoes 6 to 2. From a shots-on-goal point of view the game was relatively even with the Tornadoes getting 21 shots on goal while the Grizzlies fired 24 shots on the Tornadoes' goal. Unfortunately, the Tornadoes took 5 minor penalties to the Grizzlies 2 minor penalties and the Grizzlies were able to take advantage of three of those penalties to score 3 power play goals. Maybe the Tornadoes need to look at ways of avoiding the penalty box. In any case, the game was a lot closer than the final score would indicate.

The scoring summary is below:

Team	Period	Time	Scoring
Everett	1	4:20	Ian Dootson from Ryan Jaromin
Kent Valley	1	3:20	Jake Ryerson from Zakary Gustafson
Everett	2	14:37	Ian Dootson from Ryan Jaromin & JaCynda Mattem-McArthur
Everett	2	8:16	JaCynda Mattem-McArthur from Ian Dootson & Ryan Jaromin (Power Play)
Kent Valley	3	11:49	Zakary Gustafson from Jake Ryerson
Everett	3	11:25	Michael Myers (Unassisted)
Everett	3	9:16	Ian Dootson (Unassisted Power Play)
Everett	3	0:01	Rylan Huck from Ethan Anderson (Power Play)

Kent Valley's Nick Calfy stopped 18 of 24 shots on goal for 75%.

Everett's Matthew Ness stopped 19 of 21 shots on goal for 90%.

The poor copy quality of the faxed score sheet was such that penalties could not be interpreted. Also, some names may not be correct in the scoring above.

Bantam Tier-II Selects Lose & Tie in Tri-Cities

TRAC Center Ice Arena, Pasco, WA 15 November, 2009 – The Kent Valley Bantam Tier-II Selects just can't seem to get by the Tri-Cities Jr. Americans Bantam A. Earlier in November the Selects hosted the Jr. Americans at Kent Valley Ice centre and lost both games by scores of 2 to 0 and 3 to 2; close but no wins. This weekend Tri-Cities won on Saturday 6 to 2 and tied on Sunday 4 to 4. What's it going to take for the Selects to beat these guys?

Mikey Julin did his best on Saturday to get his team a win as he scored the Selects only two goals, one of them assisted by Anthony Stepaniants. Sunday's game had a little more offense as the Selects scored 4 goals and the Select's defense held Tri-Cities to 4 goals. Caleb Bromley and Tyler Jennings each scored goals on Sunday and Jacob Becker added two unassisted goals of his own. Tyler Jennings and Mikey Julin had assists. Percentage wise, the goalies matched each other on both days. Jacob Panzer and Graeme Freeman stopped 75% each on Saturday while Colby Bennett and Austin McCain stopped 80% each on Saturday.

A scoring summary is below:

Kent Valley Tier-II Selects (2) vs. Tri-Cities Bantam A (6)
Team	Period	Time	Scoring
Tri-Cities	1	3:52	Alex Storaci from Dylan Wirtzberger

Kent Valley's Colby Bennett stopped 16 of 20 shots on goal for 80%.

Tri-Cities Austin McCain stopped 16 of 20 shots on goal for 80%.

Kent Valley had 9 minor penalties for 18 minutes while Tri-Cities had 7 minor penalties for 14 minutes.

Midget Tornadoes Pull out Come-from-Behind Victory over SnoKing Green

Story Contributed by Mary McDonald

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 17 October, 2009 – The Midget Tornadoes hosted the SKAHA Green team which is just 1 point behind them in the league standings. The game started out slow for the Tornadoes seeing the Green scoring 3 goals before the Tornadoes could even get 4 shots on net. Then in the second period the Tornadoes would come to life scoring 3 goals and ending up tied after the 2nd period. The Tornadoes would score a quick one at the start of the third to take the lead for the first time in the game. But just a couple of minutes later the Green scored the tying goal. With just 4 minutes left in the 3rd the Tornadoes put in the go-ahead goal. In the last 3:24 the Tornadoes would have to kill 2 penalties, and play 6 on 4 hockey to ensure the win. The Green pulled their goal tender with a minute left but would not be successful in tying up the game as the Tornadoes rallied in their own end to dump the puck to ensure the victory. Another clean game played, and both teams receive their Sportsmanship point. The Tornadoes next game will be Saturday, Nov 21st against the Everett Kodiaks in Everett.

Scoring summary:

Team	Period	Time	Scoring
SnoKing	1	9:46	Nick Prekeges (Unassisted)
SnoKing	1	4:58	Jordan Sliter from Terran Jendro & Jacob Sjolund
SnoKing	2	8:26	Jake Gagnon (Unassisted)

Kent Valley	3	11:09	Blake Walsh from Zac Cadiente
SnoKing	3	6:16	Jake Gagnon (Unassisted)
Kent Valley	3	4:28	Tommy Peebles (Unassisted)

Kent Valley's Joshua Severeid stopped 17 of 21 shots on goal for 81%.

SnoKing's Colin Adams stopped 11 of 16 shots on goal for 69%.

Kent Valley had 6 minor penalties for 12 minutes while SnoKing had 1 minor penalty for 2 minutes.

Midget Tier-II Selects Drop Two to Spokane Jr. Chiefs U-18 AA

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 15 November, 2009 – In spite of improved play during Sunday's game, the Kent Valley Midget Tier-II Selects just didn't have the power to overcome the strong Spokane Jr. Chiefs. The Selects dropped Saturday's first of back-to-back games by a score of 2 to 6 to the Chiefs scoring. The Selects held the Chiefs to two goals on Sunday but were unable to muster offense to match the Chiefs. Sunday's final score was Spokane 2, Kent Valley 0. Damon Hanson scored the Selects first goal on Saturday with an assist from Anthony Mantz and Kale Pokrzywinski. Hanson and Mantz, along with teammate Dane Dahline, were called up from the idle Kent Valley Bantam Tier-I team to help fill the Select's roster for the weekend series. The Selects second goal on Saturday was scored by Mikey Anderson with an assist from Jereme Clark.

Kent Valley had 15 shots on goal in game one and 14 shots on goal in game two. The strong Spokane offense peppered Dimitri Nikitin with 27 shots on Saturday and 31 shots on Sunday. Nikitin's best game was Sunday, 29 of 31 for 94%, but his team was unable to muster offense to make it a game.

Here's the scoring summary:

Kent Valley Tier-II Selects (2) vs. Spokane Jr. Chiefs (6)
Team	Period	Time	Scoring
Spokane	1	13:28	Travis Condron from Michael Oien

Spokane's Ryan Felvarg stopped 14 of 14 shots on goal to earn the shutout.

Kent Valley had 8 minor penalties and 1 major misconduct penalty for 26 minutes while Spokane had 5 minor penalties for 10 minutes.

T-Birds Weekend Wrap

*Story contributed by Ian Henry
Director, Public & Media Relations
Seattle Thunderbirds Hockey Club*

The T-Birds just had a great weekend on the ice. They had three road games and won all of them, two by shutout. The T-Birds travelled to Kamloops on Friday to take on the Blazers and came away with a 7-2 victory. Jonathan Parker had a hat trick and Prab Rai had two goals and an assist. Goalie Calvin Pickard got the win stopping 22 of 24 shots.

After the win against the Blazers the T-Birds headed to Everett to take on their I-5 rival the Silvertips. Seattle got a great performance in net from Pickard as he stopped all 29 shots he faced to shut out the Tips. Jonathan Parker had another goal while Brendan Rouse had a goal and two assists, and Sena Acolatse had a goal and an assist. The T-Birds then headed to Vancouver to face the Giants, one of the best teams in the Western Conference. They got another great performance from Pickard as he made 25 saves to shut out the Giants. Rai and Acolatse each had two goals in the 5-0 victory over Vancouver. Pickard has not been scored on in the last 131:50 of action.

The team is currently on a four-game winning streak and has outscored their past four opponents, 20-3. Pickard now has three shutouts on the season as the team will return to ShoWare Center on Friday to take on the Blazers at 7:35pm. The T-Birds will then battle the Silvertips on Saturday at 7:05 p.m.

Jason Thomsen's Shout from the Show

What a great weekend! The Birds are really starting to play well and now is the time to come out to a game. With two big games this weekend and some great promotional nights coming up, it is the perfect time to bring out your team. Remember that all youth hockey teams that get together 20 or more people can sit in the family section for just $10 each! This price is good for all players, families and friends... so gather your team and come on out!
