

KVHA News – Another Accomplishment for KVHA Alumni Dylan Gambrell

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA. 20, December 2014 - Add another accomplishment for Dylan Gambrell, one of Kent Valley's brightest stars. Gambrell was a member of the USA Junior Select Team that just won the World Jr. "A" Challenge. Congratulations to Dylan Gambrell. Below is a 12/20/2014 press release and photo from USA Hockey.com

U.S. Beats Denmark, 3-2, in OT to Win World Jr. "A" Challenge

The U.S. wins its sixth Jr. "A" title in seven years; Tom Novak nets game-winning goal

KINDERSLEY, Saskatchewan, 12 December, 2014 — The U.S. Junior Select Team edged Denmark, 3-2, in overtime to claim its sixth tournament title in seven years of the 2014 World Junior A Challenge. Thomas Novak (River Falls, Wis./Waterloo Black Hawks) sealed the victory, scoring just 4:56 into the extra frame.

"We had an incredible team effort against Denmark, which was capped with Tommy Novak's overtime winner," said Jay Varady, head coach of the U.S. Junior Select Team. "It was an unbelievable feeling, and this is another great accomplishment for USA Hockey."

Editor's Note: Dylan Gambrell currently plays for the Dubuque Fighting Saints of the USHL and is committed to the University of Denver for 2015/2016. He played five seasons with Kent Valley Hockey Association from 2004/2005 through 2008/2009.

KVHA Advisory Council Meeting

The KVHA Member Advisory Council met at Kent Valley Ice Centre Thursday evening, December 18th. The enthusiastic group of members discussed a number of issues and outlined potential solutions. The group will meet again early in January to continue their work. Thanks to those who participated.

KVHA 12th Annual Auction Update

Our KVHA Auction Team sorted through Auction items this past weekend and we are so excited. We have some AMAZING items this year and we've had some great support from our Hockey Families.

A huge thank you goes out to everybody who has already donated their items for our Auction. We are so thankful for everyone's support. People took the time to donate some really great items which will help us raise more funds for our hockey players and the sport they love. We need to wrap up our team donations before the end of the year (the deadline has passed!) so we can focus on Sponsorships, Ticket Sales and Procuring Auction Items from the Community in January. Please get your items in ASAP.

Need an idea on what to donate? See below for some great items:

- AMC Gift Cards
- Lego Sets
- Thunderbird Jersey
- Play Tickets
- Gift Card to I FLY
- Car Washes
- Gift Cards from Restaurants at Kent Station
- Sounder Tickets

Kent Valley PeeWee Tornadoes Cap 5 to 1 Win With Buzzer-Beating Goal

Story contributed by Ellen Shelden

Kingsgate Ice Arena, Kirkland, WA. December 14, 2014 – The KVHA PeeWee Tornadoes continued their successful NPSHL campaign with a 5 to 1 Sunday win over the SKAHA Jr. T-birds White team at Kingsgate Ice Arena in Kirkland. What's ironic is that they won this game by the same score spread that they had just 1-month prior against the Grey team. The only difference was that this early morning thriller had their opponent scoring right out of the gate (rather than a trickler that snuck in before the last buzzer sounded). In the end, it didn't matter (except for the heart palpitations it gave the coaches!) as the Tornadoes got the job done with their solid performance and impressive teamwork! Way to go, boys!

Period 1 - As the 1st period began and the tensions built, both teams fought hard for possession of that elusive puck. However, our Tornadoes seemed a bit off their game positionally and we're missing a step off their usual speed - possibly due to the frigid temperature & o'dark-hundred hour, or possibly due to overconfidence - but definitely out of synch. Unfortunately, their guard was let down a bit when the Whites scored the first goal of the match within the first minute of the period. Talk about a wake-up call! Thankfully, they collected themselves and got their 'game on' as they battled toe-to-toe as the period progressed. Midway through the period, Maxwell Mudge would score on an unassisted breakaway. Then a few minutes later, the Tornadoes kept the momentum going and scored again to capture the lead on a goal from Caleb Chaloner, with an assist by Jake Ferguson & Tyler Sherwood. Awesome job, boys!

Period 2 - The 2nd period was highlighted with a heated battle for possession and persistent attacks from both teams. However, the Tornadoes were determined to keep their lead (and even extend it) as they went into action and netted another goal, this one a spectacular shot from Steven Rosenquist, assisted by Jake Ferguson & Sean Smith. The Whites made every attempt to initiate a rally – however, the Tornadoes would have 'none of it' and intensified their offensive barrage and defensive strategies to prevent any shift in momentum. Throughout the period, the impressive team effort displayed by the Tornadoes where some timely defensive plays by D and forwards alike helped them sustain their lead as the period closed. Great offensive performance to end the period with a 2-goal lead!

Period 3 - The final period opened in much the same way that both previous periods had played – with the Tornadoes doing an outstanding job defending their zone and adding more goals to the scoreboard! Just over midway through the period, as the Tornadoes rallied a relentless offensive attack, Jake Ferguson would net a sweet goal between the pipes, assisted by Sean Smith. But the Tornadoes weren't done yet! In the waning minutes of the period, Jake Ferguson would find another chink in Sno-King White Harry Redding's armor and score an unbelievable buzzer-beater, assisted by Caleb Chaloner & Steven Rosenquist, Way to rally and keep the momentum going, boys!

Summary - In the end, this morning chiller favored the KVHA Tornados who took advantage of the White's home ice and showed no mercy by out-shooting them with 25-8 shots on goal! As a result, the Tornados came out ahead to win against the White team in league play on Sunday by an exhilarating final score of 5-1. Goalie Kyle Klem did an amazing job and turned away 7 of 8 shots to help earn the victory with an 88% save rate. Good job, Kyle! Hopefully next week, the Tornados can ride the "win" wave once again in a match against the girls - the Washington Wild - at home. Good luck, Tornados!

Below is the scoring summary for Sunday's game:

KVHA PeeWee Tornados (5) vs. SnoKing PeeWee White (1)

Team	Per	Time	Scoring
SnoKing	1	14:30	Patrick Pierson from Owen Snyder-Smith & Blake Sloan

Quote of the Day!

The True Meaning of Winning the Cup:

"Growing up in Canada I spent my childhood chasing pucks around on my backyard rink dreaming of one day getting to hoist that thing. That scenario played out millions of times in my head in those days, so to finally get to do it was beyond anything I can even think of. It wasn't even reality at that point, it was just a dream. Winning the first one with Calgary was extra special because we got to win it up in that hallowed shrine of hockey in Montreal, the Forum, where their fans showed us so much respect after beating the Canadiens in Game 6. Being the classy fans that they are, they hung around and cheered for us after the game; it was a gesture that I had never seen before or since. They had never lost a Stanley Cup at home up until that point, and they wanted to show their appreciation, so it was pretty memorable."

Rob Ramage, Stanley Cup winner with Calgary 1989 and Montreal 1993
