

December 22nd/23rd Game Summaries

Kent, WA December 26, 2007 – The Christmas holidays played havoc with the reporting of game results and their related statistics. Wrapping presents got in the way here and there. But, finally, except for a couple of exceptions, everything looks good to go and we're going to press. What you see is what you get. Blame the omissions on Santa.

Coming up this week; It's going to be a busy time for KVHA teams between now and New Years as many of our teams hit the road for holiday tournaments. Several teams will be in the greater Vancouver, B.C. area for tournaments while the West Coast Bantams and Midgets play in Phoenix, Arizona. We wish you all good weather, safe travel, lots of fun, and success on the ice.

The weekend's game summaries are below. Enjoy!

KVHA Bantam Tornadoes Unwrap Two Weekend Wins

Everett, WA December 23, 2007 – The Kent Valley Tornadoes got what they wanted for Christmas: two wins this weekend despite more injuries. While Dalton Niles remains out with a broken ankle, Stone Hanlon suffered a fractured wrist and will likely be out for the next six weeks. None of that could stop the singing Bantams Saturday who scored early in the first period in Everett where they took on the Jr. Silvertips Green. Zac Cadiente knocked in the puck after a nice pass from Neil Dhanda and Zach Bloss. While there was no scoring in the second period, there were a lot of penalties on both sides but the Tornadoes, with the help of Goalie Troy Turpin, managed to keep the Silvertips from taking advantage of their powerplays. Eventually in the third, Blake Walsh scored a short-handed goal passed from Ben Fleming that ricocheted off a Silvertip defenseman's back and into the net to make it 2-0. Then, Kyle Miller-Smith followed-up with a shot to the net a few minutes later, with

Brady Anderson and Brendan Laik getting the assists. With just a minute left in the game, Blake Walsh made it 4-nothing thanks to a pass from Zac Cadiente and it was another league win for the Tornados and another shut-out for Goalie Troy Turpin! (Story by Sheri Walsh.)
